

FROM THE BOARDROOM: November 2019

1. FINANCE

The net profit for October 2019 was $5,532. The year to date net loss is $22,684 or $56,210 under budget.

2. WETLANDS PROJECT

All holes are now in play with the last of the tubestock planted around the wetlands.

3. PROGRAM BOOK

The new program book is nearly complete and will be ready for circulation in January.

4. STRATEGIC PLANNING DAY

The Board and staff will be having the first of the planning days on the 11 December.

5. LES BROWNE PRESENTATION

Last night at the cocktail party the Board made a presentation to Les for his significant contribution to the Club. 55 Years as a Member, 22 of that on the Board and also various roles undertaken with NSWGA. Les has given back as much as he has gained from golf. He has been a tireless worker, dedicated and always on call to assist the Club. Thank you Les for your wisdom and knowledge.

As this is the last "From the Boardroom" before Christmas, I would like to wish all Members and Staff a very happy & and safe Christmas.
