FROM THE BOARDROOM

Board Meeting held 26th November 2020

1. FINANCE.

The Net Profit for the month of October 2020 was $147,285. The YTD Net Surplus is $590,873. This result was particularly satisfying considering that this was the first month without receiving any Government stimulus. Included in the October figures is the sale of the old golf carts for $78,366.

2. PARKING.

Council has advised that they have recommended changing Anzac Avenue to 8 hour parking and this should be approved at the next meeting of the Traffic Committee in December.

3. GRANTS

This month we have received confirmation of 2 grants being approved. One to concrete the path leading to the new practice nets on 9 ($17,000) and the other to replace emergency entry gates to the course and modify the entry gate from the carpark to the proshop ($12,500). Well done to Rob Cordaiy, Craig Wood and Ben for their efforts.

4. STRATEGIC PLANNING DAY

The Board and staff will be having the first of the planning days on 2 December.

5. COVID RESTRICTIONS

Please remember that you must:

- Sign in digitally on entering the Clubhouse – even if you enter via the locker room or rear entrance, you must proceed to reception to swipe your Member's card.
- Remain seated unless moving to the bar, café or restrooms.
- Refrain from intermingling between groups.

6. MOVEMBER

Thank you to all those who have made donations to "Movember". We have raised over $7504.40. My Mo is now gone and my wife is now calls me Uncle Fester. As one wag said to me "If you grow it back you will just be Uncle Fester with a mo".

As this is the last "From the Boardroom" before Christmas, I would like to wish all Members and Staff a very happy and safe Christmas.

Stephen Twigg
President
