

ROOKIES MEMBERSHIP

The Long Reef Rookies is a female introductory Membership perfect for those who have started out with prior lessons or attended beginner clinics and want to progress their golf. The Rookies are a social group who have dedicated weekly clinics during the school term, plus on-course access after most* weekly clinics.

During the clinics our Rookies will have both practical lessons and theory based lessons. These include learning golf etiquette, rules, club selection, technique & much more. Our Rookies will be guided by our Golf Professionals during clinics, with further support from our Long Reef Members on the course.

Rookies can't have a current handicap or previously obtained one. This beginners Membership is the perfect foundation to get on-course experience and gain confidence in your golf before full Membership.
